CALL TO ARTISTS

Summer 2026 Exhibition: UNLOVEABLE

Juror: Daniella Napolitano

Due Date: Monday, April 27 – 11:55 pm MST

DESCRIPTION

Bats, rats, gnats, oh my! From the creepy to the crawlly, this open call exhibition invites artists to submit artwork of animals that are often deemed Unlovable by the public. We encourage artists to reimagine these creatures through unique perspectives, whether by emphasizing their beauty, strangeness, resilience, or symbolic power. Submissions may evoke discomfort, empathy, or challenge preconceived notions of what makes an animal worthy of care. Whether it's a startling scary portrayal of a snake or a meticulous rendering of a tarantula, we welcome it all. This opportunity is open to Arizona artists working in any medium. Unlovable will be on display June 13- August 15, 2026. Exhibition-ready works in two or three dimensions and any medium will be accepted, as well as video. The gallery will also consider proposals for performance-based work.
